Collection Diversification and Community Engagement Panel

November 19th, 2020

2pm - 3pm CST

via Zoom

Hear from some of our very own member institutions that have successfully engaged their communities, built long-lasting relationships with them, and seen the benefits of doing so. From collection strategies to community workshops to exhibition outreach, these panelists have worked hard to make sure that their archives work with, and not against, their community.

Featuring:

- Dino Robinson, Founder, Shorefront Legacy Center
- Raquel Flores-Clemons, University Archivist and Director of University Archives, Records Management, & Special Collections, Chicago State University
- Pam Hackbart-Dean, Head of Special Collections & University Archives, University of Illinois at Chicago
- Liesl Olson, Director of Chicago Studies, Newberry Library
- Alison Hinderliter, Lloyd Lewis Curator of Modern Manuscripts and Archives and Selector for Modern Music, Newberry Library
